

Year 4 Frozen Kingdom	Science	Geography	History	Art/DT	Computing	RE	PSHE	Literacy	Music
Stunning start: Find a map from ‘Shackleton’ – where is it trying to take us? Where in the world is this? Why? What happened here? Key Texts Sky Song – Abi Elphinstone Shackleton’s Journey – William Grill	States of Matter. Solids, liquids and gases. Freezing and melting. Condensation and evaporation. The Water Cycle. Electricity. How electricity was discovered. Identify home appliances that use electricity. How to stay safe when using electricity. Construct circuits and create pictorial circuits. Investigate switches.	The Northern Lights. Global warming. Arctic and Antarctic circle – animals and survival. Mountains and mountain ranges. Globes, maps, atlases and google earth. Climate zones.	Ernest Shackleton and his expeditions.	Marbling to create water effects. Art in the style of that in Shackleton’s journey, focusing on the effects of shading.	Keeping safe online – using Google’s Be Internet Legends. Create a powerpoint presentation of our topic learning – What is a Frozen Kingdom?	Islam. Who was Muhammad and why was he important to Islam? The Qu’ran How Muslims worship. Islamic festivals: Ramadam, Eid-ul-Fitr and Eid-ul-Adha. Pilgrimage: Dhu Al-Hijja and Al Hijja. Understanding Christianity. Gospel Explore how Christians are making the kind of world Jesus wanted. Loving your God, your neighbour and putting others first. Showing forgiveness to all.	Being me in my world – focusing on our school community, groups and our individual roles within them. Celebrating difference – acknowledging differences and learning not to make assumptions because of them.	Narrative writing using the text: Sky Song (Abi Elphinstone). We will be focusing on five key areas of narrative: Settings Characters Quest writing Actions scenes Resolutions After focusing on our key areas will write our own ‘Quest Story’ inspired by Sky Song. Finally, we shall look at Prologues and write one for our own ‘Quest Story’. In addition We shall be looking at two areas of poetry: Performance poetry Writing poetry	Using the song ‘Mama Mia’ by Abba, looking at beat, rhythm, composing and performing. Christmas songs and music.